Elmora School No. 12 hosted an event with the visit of a special guest who called Elizabeth home.

Amanda Tempesta, a former student of School No. 12 lost her father on September 11, 2001 while he was working on the 105th floor of the World Trade Center. Amanda was a 2nd grade student at School No. 12 on that tragic day. Amanda presented a heartfelt speech to the students about her experience of sitting in her classroom celebrating her 7th birthday with cupcakes, and wondering why so many teachers were sad, and parents were frantically picking up their children from school. Amanda shared a video she produced of her recent visit to the Memorial, where students were able to see her father’s name, Anthony Tempesta imprinted on the Memorial Wall. The assembly concluded with tearful eyed students giving Amanda a standing ovation, while presenting her with a cake and flowers as they sang “Happy Birthday.”

Board of Education Commissioner Rafael Fajardo congratulated Amanda on her inspiring words, and all of her accomplishments. Amanda attends Hofstra University, where she is majoring in journalism.

Elmora School No. 12 Stands Together!

Like many other people around the United States, the students of Elmora School No. 12 stand together to remember the lives lost due to the tragic event that occurred on September 11, 2001.

Ronald Reagan Academy Remembers 9/11

Students, teachers and staff at Ronald Reagan Academy School No. 30 took time to remember the tragic events that happened thirteen years ago, on September 11, 2001. It was the culmination of several days of reflection, discussion, and writing as teachers offered a history lesson about these events to their students. Students in the upper elementary grades discussed their feelings about the events. In one class, students listened to passages from the book Legacy Letters, a collection of letters written by family members to loved ones who died on 9/11. The letters, filled with love, humor, and encouragement, offered a unique perspective on the events of a day of infamy that changed the world forever.

The observance of this tragic event culminated with a moment of silence at 8:45 am on September 11, 2014, when, respectfully, students quietly gathered and stood before the American flag, flown at half-mast, and listened to “Taps”. Writer Geraldine Brooks summed up the feelings about this historic day when she wrote, “September 11, 2001, revealed heroism in ordinary people who might have gone through their lives never called upon to demonstrate the extent of their courage”.

Educators need to address crucial topics such as the environment and social responsibility. School No. 27 is looking forward to incorporating these ideals in the classroom for the 2014-2015 school year.

Jerome Dunn Academy School No. 9 for Mathematics, Technology, and the Arts
